1. ABOUT THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These Terms and Conditions set out the basis on which You (the Merchant) agree with Indue to participate in the enhanced Income Management program. These are in addition to any terms and conditions you may have with your Acquiring Institution.

2. YOUR OBLIGATIONS

2.1 General obligations

You must:

- (a) not sell any Restricted goods to an enhanced Income Management program 'SmartCard' Cardholder;

Restricted Goods are:

- alcohol;
 - gambling products;
 - tobacco products;
 - pornography products;
 - prepaid and gift cards (cash-like items) that enable Cardholders to access cash, alcohol, tobacco, pornography or gambling products; and
 - any other products advised by Indue to the Merchant from time to time
- (b) not enable a Cardholder to obtain any cash, whether as a "cash out" transaction, a refund transaction (including a refund or any payment arising from the cancellation of a lay-by) or otherwise;
- (c) notify Indue of changes to any Terminal and/or Retailer identification numbers;
- (d) not accept a SmartCard for payment if Your Terminal or Payment System is not online or is not functioning normally;
- (e) not accept a SmartCard for the repayment of any debt (or part thereof) owed to you or accept a SmartCard as security or collateral for any credit or loan provided by you;
- (f) process all payments made using a SmartCard electronically through your Terminals and not use a handwritten voucher or an imprint machine (also known as a "click-clack" machine);
- (g) ensure that instructions and information entered into the Payment System are correct and reflect the underlying SmartCard Transaction;
- (h) subject to the other terms and conditions in this document, not discriminate against a Cardholder or impose any additional fees or minimum spend restrictions on the basis they have presented a SmartCard for payment of goods or services; and
- (i) if requested by Indue, keep itemised receipts of each SmartCard Transaction filed in an ordered and auditable filing system from the date You receive such a request from Indue.

2.2 Measures to ensure compliance

You must take all reasonable steps to implement systems and processes to meet your obligations under these Terms and Conditions. You must ensure that your staff understand how to process a SmartCard Transaction in compliance with these Terms and Conditions (for example understanding that a Restricted Good can't be sold to a Cardholder and that a Cardholder can't obtain Cash when using the SmartCard).

2.3 Dedicated Terminal for Eligible Goods

In addition to Your obligations in clause 2.1 and 2.2 above, at each Store you must:

- (a) have at least one (1) Terminal that is dedicated to selling Eligible Goods (Eligible Goods Terminal) and that cannot be used by any cardholder (whether a participant in the enhanced Income Management program or otherwise) to purchase a Restricted Good; and
- (b) display above or in immediate proximity to each Eligible Goods Terminal a sign that clearly states that the Terminal cannot be used to purchase alcohol, tobacco, pornography, gambling products, or gift or prepaid cards (to the extent You sell any of these products at the Store).

You must complete the Terminal Identification Table within this agreement, providing Indue with a list of all Terminal and Retailer identification numbers in each Store and identify which of those Terminals are Eligible Goods Terminals. You acknowledge that Indue may on the instruction of Services Australia block any Terminal in the Store that isn't an Eligible Goods Terminal from accepting SmartCard transactions.

3. NOTIFICATION EVENTS

3.1 Events requiring immediate notification

You must notify Services Australia immediately by calling 1800 670 123 or emailing us at met@servicesaustralia.gov.au if you suspect or become aware that a SmartCard has been used, or attempted to be used in a fraudulent manner or contrary to these Terms and Conditions.

3.2 Other notification events

You must notify Services Australia by calling 1800 670 123 or emailing met@servicesaustralia.gov.au promptly (and in any event within 1 Business Day) after the occurrence of any of the following:

- (a) you change Acquiring Institution from the Acquiring Institution nominated in the Merchant Application;
- (b) if any of the information contained in the Merchant Application Form or the Merchant Agreement becomes incorrect or misleading in any respect; or
- (c) you sell or otherwise dispose of Your business or one or more Stores.

4. AUDIT AND COMPLIANCE REVIEW

4.1 Audit and review rights

You acknowledge and agree that Indue or its nominee (which may include the Australian National Audit Office or Services Australia) may conduct audits and reviews of your compliance with your obligations under these Terms and Conditions. These reviews may be by way of random compliance testing at any Store and may or may not be disclosed or brought to Your attention.

4.2 Access

You acknowledge and agree that Indue or its nominee may, at reasonable times and on giving reasonable notice to You:

- (a) inspect and copy documentation, books and records, however stored, relating to SmartCard Transactions or your performance of these Terms and Conditions; or
- (b) require assistance in respect of any inquiry into or concerning these Terms and Conditions or the enhanced Income Management Program.

You must provide access to your records (including providing use of any device necessary for access), to the extent necessary for Indue to exercise its rights under this clause.

4.3 Provision of Information

Indue or its nominee (which may include the Australian National Audit Office or Services Australia) may contact You (which may be by phone or in writing, including by email) as part of compliance review and testing processes and request that you provide copies of sales dockets for transactions. You must provide the requested information within a period specified in the request. Without limiting any of Indue's other rights or remedies, failure to provide the requested information within the specified timeframe may result in Indue revoking Your Approval to accept payments from SmartCards.

4.4 Audit and review costs

Each party must bear its own costs of any audits or compliance reviews.

5. BREACH

If You breach any provision of these Terms and Conditions, without limiting any of Indue's rights or remedies, Indue or its nominee (which may include Services Australia) may issue a notice (Warning Notice) to you detailing the nature of the breach and requiring you to remedy the breach within a period specified in the notice (the Remedy Period) after receipt of the notice. Indue or Services Australia may also provide You with additional training on their obligations under these Terms and Conditions.

You must remedy any breach notified in a Warning Notice to the satisfaction of Indue (or its nominee) within the applicable Remedy Period.

6. SUSPENSION

In the event that you enter into an agreement with Services Australia in relation to participation in a product level blocking (PLB) trial, these Terms and Conditions will automatically be suspended for the duration of Your participation in the PLB trial.

7. TERMINATION

7.1 Termination by Indue

Subject to Clause 5, Indue may by written notice terminate or impose conditions on your participation as a Merchant in the enhanced Income Management Program for a breach of these Terms and Conditions, to protect Indue's legitimate business interests or manage significant risks, or it required to do so by Services Australia.

7.2 Termination by You

You may terminate your participation as a Merchant in the enhanced Income Management Program by giving notice in writing to MET@servicesaustralia.gov.au.

7.3 Automatic termination

These Terms and Conditions automatically terminate with immediate effect upon the earlier of you ceasing to be Approved as a Merchant for the purposes of the enhanced Income Management Program or you terminate the Merchant Agreement.

7.4 Consequences of termination

Upon termination of these Terms and Conditions you must not accept the SmartCard for the purchase of restricted goods and Services Australia may request that Indue block your business entirely or at the terminal level.

7.5 Survival

Clauses 7.4, 8, 10 and 11 survive termination of these Terms and Conditions.

8. LIABILITY, COSTS AND CHARGES

8.1 Indue not liable

Indue will not be liable for any loss incurred by the Merchant, however caused, arising directly or indirectly as a result of:

- (a) Your participation in the SmartCard eIM program as a Merchant;
- (b) Your inability to complete a sale or refund transaction using a SmartCard;
- (c) Indue terminating these Terms and Conditions and you ceasing to be Approved as a Merchant;
- (d) Indue disclosing information to the Commonwealth in accordance with clause 11 of these Terms and Conditions.

9. VARIATION

9.1 Right to Vary these Terms and Conditions

Indue may, by giving notice to you, vary these Terms and Conditions at any time without your Consent.

Any variation to these Terms and Conditions will take effect 20 days after the date of the notice (or any other later date specified in the notice), unless Indue or Services Australia, acting reasonably, considers that the variation is required to protect the integrity of the enhanced Income Management program or the security of the practices and processes that underpin the enhanced Income Management program in which case it may become effective immediately.

If you no longer wish to participate in the enhanced Income Management program as a result of any changes Indue makes to the Terms and Conditions you may notify us in accordance with clause 7.2.

10. PRIVACY

In connection with the use of a SmartCard, You must:

- (a) only collect or retain personal information if required to do so by these Terms and Conditions or by law,
- (b) only disclose personal information collected or retained in accordance with paragraph (a) if the disclosure is required by these Terms and Conditions, by law, or consented to by the individual to whom the personal information relates; and
- (c) in relation to any personal information collected or retained in accordance with paragraph (a), ensure that it does not do an act, or engage in a practice, that would be a breach of an Australian Privacy Principle if done by Indue.

In this clause 10, the terms “personal information” and “Australian Privacy Principles” have the same meaning as they have in the Privacy Act 1988.

11. MERCHANT DATA

- (a) Indue may disclose to the Commonwealth (including any Commonwealth department) any information in any form:
 - (i) about you;
 - (ii) collected from you;
 - (iii) derived from Your participation in the enhanced Income Management program (which may include details of SmartCard Transactions) (“Merchant Information”).
- (b) You acknowledge that the Commonwealth may use the Merchant Information that Indue discloses to it for any purposes it deems necessary.
